1. Respectful Workplace

Nexora expects professional, respectful, and inclusive behavior in person, remotely, and in company communication channels.

2. Prohibited Conduct

Harassment, discrimination, threats, bullying, retaliation, intimidation, and deliberate misuse of company systems are prohibited.

3. Conflicts

Employees should disclose situations that may create a conflict between personal interests and company responsibilities to their manager or People Operations.

4. Reporting

Concerns may be raised with the manager, People Operations, or the confidential reporting channel. Reports are handled according to applicable internal procedures.

5. Non-Retaliation

Retaliation against a person who raises a good-faith concern or participates in a review is prohibited.

6. Remote Conduct

The same standards apply to video meetings, chat, email, issue trackers, code reviews, and other company-supported communication.
